GARAGE SALE
SATURDAY, MAY 6, 2017

General Information

Every year enthusiastic buyers from all over Licking County (and beyond) scout Granville for bargain baby items, unique antiques, fashionable furniture, and more. The Great Granville Garage Sale (GGGS) is scheduled for Saturday, May 6, 2017. This greatly anticipated event brings thousands of shoppers to the Granville area for over 60 quality yard and garage sales in and around the Village. It is scheduled in conjunction with opening day of the 2017 Granville Farmers Market. Licking County Coalition for Housing (LCCH) organizes this event to raise funds for programs that help our friends and neighbors in Licking County who are homeless or facing housing challenges.

All registered sales will be listed on the Official GGGS Sale Map. Maps are available at these locations:

- Friday May 5, 5:30-7:30 PM
 Ross' Granville Market, 484 South Main Street, Granville
 College Town House, 334 East Broadway, Granville
- Saturday May 6, 7:30 AM– noon
 Granville Farmers Market, North Main Street, at Broadway
 Granville Public Library, 217 East Broadway, Granville

Treasure Hunt:

This year we have organized a Treasure Hunt for GGGS shoppers! Collect a vintage vocabulary for a chance to win the Grand Prize. Each registered seller will display a code word for shoppers to write on their map. If shoppers gather ten (10) or more code words they may bring their map to Wildwood Park, 785 West Broadway, from 3:30-5:30 pm on May 6. Each “collection” of ten words will earn one raffle ticket for the GGGS Grand Prize. Shop registered sellers, look for their vintage word, and record it on your map for your chance to win.

Also listed in the Official GGGS Map are participating businesses. Be sure to visit these local merchants and take advantage of GGGS specials and discounts.
